By train from London

Parking.....

In view of the restricted parking at the church, there will be a minibus to ferry people from the Village Hall car park, where there is much more parking space (and where we are having the buffet afterwards). Or those fit enough can walk it in under 10 mins. Either way, people are advised to arrive good and early. There is only one portaloo at the church.

The village hall is on the left after you pass the entrance to St Owen's church on the right. It is opposite Bromham Baptist church and the postcode is MK43 8JP
