

That Sunday Thing .... Coming soon!

Would you like to chill out and read the papers, spend time with your family and have someone cook your breakfast for you?!

“Oh yes” I hear you cry. “That would indeed be my ideal Sunday morning. But where, pray tell would such an event take place?!”

You’ll be pleased to hear, virtually on your very own doorstep (well, Oakley Village Hall actually.)

Fourth Sunday of every month from 9.30-11.30am you are invited to turn up to the village hall with your family, read the papers while the children play or draw, have a lovely cooked breakfast together and listen to a short “Food for thought” slot.

That Sunday Thing will be a monthly family event and we would love for you to join us. There will be a different modern theme for each event and the Food for thought slot will offer a short Christian perspective on that. No pressure, no stress, (any regulars to Messy Church will know how informal it will be!) So, go on give it a go. That thingummy jiggy, what’s it called? Oh yeah..... That Sunday Thing!

Please join us!
